SUBJECT: Placement Programs for Displaced Federal Employees

1. Placement programs for displaced Federal employees and reduction-in-force procedures are issues that will be raised during the 99th Congress.

2. Attached for your information is H.R. 6080, known as the "Fair RIF Practices Act of 1984," which was introduced by Congressman Michael Barnes on 6 August. This bill would set up a government-wide outplacement system. This legislation will likely be reintroduced next year.

3. Also attached is information from a hearing held on 2 October by the Subcommittee on Human Resources, House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. The witnesses discussed reduction-in-force procedures in general as well as H.R. 6080. Copies of the witness list, Chairman Donald J. Albosta's opening remarks and witness statements are attached.
